 Date Issued

Note: Proof of full time residency or property ownership is required (i.e. utility bill, property tax bill, etc.) All operators must familiarize themselves with the Danville "Ordinance for Regulating All-Terrain Vehicles", which may be found on the Town of Danville website (www.danvillevermont.org) or requested from the Town Clerk's Office. Registration is valid for the current year and must be renewed annually. Decals are not required for ATV operation for agricultural purposes as defined under State Statute and referenced in Section XII. Agricultural Use in the Town of Danville Ordinance. Original registration form will be given to applicant with a copy kept for town files. These decals are only for Danville full time residents and/or Danville landowners for recreational use. They are not transferable to another ATV. These decals only permit operation on designated town roads as specified by the Town of Danville ordinance or as otherwise specified by the Selectboard. These decals are strictly issued for use on town roads and do not imply that these town decals authorize usage on private lands.
