For immediate release:

The Danville Vermont Historical Society presents its Third Annual Bean Hole Supper to benefit the Greenbank's Hollow Historic Park on Sunday, September 10 from 12:30 pm (unearthing of the beans) to 2 pm, at Greenbank's Hollow. Meet your friends at the beautiful Greenbank's Hollow Bean Pit (near the covered bridge) for good company and good eatin'. A friendly competition exists between four local beanmeisters--Keith Gadapee, Hollis Prior, David Houston and Jim Hunt—each proudly preparing and serving their favorite recipe. For those who are new to bean hole suppers, here is a link to its long history <https://umaine.edu/folklife/history-of-bean-hole-beans/>. In addition, there will be hot dogs with all the fixings, cornbread, salads, blueberry cake, iced tea and coffee to round out the menu.

Attendance is limited to 75 people at $15 for adults and $8 for children under 11. Contact Laura Edgar at (802) 684-2011 for tickets. Supper is served, rain or shine, under the new, big tent. Information about Greenbank's Hollow Historic Park may be found on the Danville Historical Society website at danvillehistorical.org. Like us on Facebook!
